His sire Key West by Stradivari out of Kateja by Inschallah AA is one of the upcoming stars in the young generation of the Trakehner stallion group. His sire, half-brother of Elite stallion Schwadronneur and Grand-Prix-stallion Showmaster, represents the valuable genes of famous Schwalbenburg. Kateja as a daughter of Oldenburg worldwide well known competition sire Inschallah and German Supreme champion mare Kalinka represents one of the highest quality mare lines of today.

Key West is full brother of highly reputed K2, the Champion of the grading in 2001. Key West represents the noble, athletic and powerful type of the modern Trakehner sports horse and is successfully shown in show jumping and dressage on advanced level already. A high number of premium daughters and elite foals in the auctions prove his stamping attitudes as a young sire.

This charming gelding has good bloodlines for jumping or dressage. He is a very smart boy who loves attention.

El Bonito's dam Ebony was Reserve Champion of the mare performance test in Germany and her foals are wonderful in temperament and so easy to get on and ride, very willing to learn and try very hard to please..
